

State of Tennessee
Oath of Office
110th General Assembly

I, Kevin Vaughan, do solemnly swear that, as a member of this, the One Hundred Tenth General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, I will faithfully support the Constitution of this State and of the United States, and I do solemnly affirm that as a member of this General Assembly, I will, in all appointments, vote without favor, affection, partiality, or prejudice; and that I will not propose or assent to any bill, vote or resolution, which shall appear to me injurious to the people, or consent to any act or thing, whatever, that shall have a tendency to lessen or abridge their rights and privileges, as declared by the Constitution of this state.

So help me God.

Representative Kevin Vaughan
110th General Assembly

I, W. Neal McBrayer, Judge of the Court of Appeals of Tennessee, have this, the twenty-fourth day of August, 2017, administered the Oath of Office for the House of Representatives for the State of Tennessee as prescribed by law.

Judge W. Neal McBrayer
Court of Appeals of Tennessee
